DETAILED ACTIONDrawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the "brake means", "monitor means", "manually operable lowering drive", "brake shoe interacting with respective vertical guide of said vertical beam", "safety means comprising a positively acting arrest element", and "position detector disposed on said vertical beam" must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 26-31 and 33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Art Unit: 3652

Re claim 26, it is unclear whether "a drum for winding and unwinding the associated traction cable" is the same as "a rotating member" in claim 23 or not.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 23, 29 and 32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by White 1,884,447.

White '447 discloses an underfloor lifting platform comprising at least one vertical beam 17 liftable and lowerable in a pit, one support arm comprising support 18, a prime mover comprising switching and control element, and transmission including at least one flexible traction cable 24 coupled to a rotating member 28 and engaged at a lower end of the associated vertical beam.

Re claim 29, see page 2, lines 30-33.

Re claim 32, positively arresting element 39.

Claim 23 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hulsart 2,661,816.

Hulsart discloses an underfloor lifting platform comprising at least one vertical beam 4 liftable and lowerable in a pit, one support arm comprising support 5, a prime mover 16 comprising switching and control element, and transmission including at least one flexible traction cable coupled to a rotating member 13 and engaged at a lower end of the vertical beam.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 23-25 and 32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Price 5,339,925.

Price '925 discloses an underfloor lifting platform comprising two vertical beams 20 each having a support arm 27, a prime mover, a transmission including a flexible cable connected at a lower end of respective beam, the cable being coupled to a rotating member 83 rotatably driven by the prime mover, the two vertical connected to each other at the lower ends by a stable transverse beam 22 connects.

Price discloses a flexible chain instead of flexible traction cable. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to substitute a traction cable for the chain of Price since chain and traction cable were art recognized equivalent. For example, see Hulsart 2,661,816, col. 1, lines 33-35.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 26-28 and 33 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Each of the cited references separately discloses an underfloor lifting platform.
